Assemblymen To Attend PUC Hearing

Two members of the California State Assembly, Charles E. Chapel of Inglewood and Augustus Hawkins of Los Angeles, will be present Monday at the telephone service hearing before the Public Utilities Commission in Palm Springs, it was learned today by the Desert Sun.

The hearings into the telephone service in this area start Monday morning at 10 a.m., when California Public Utilities Commissioner Rex Hardy will be present to hear testimony and cross-examination by the companies.

The meetings were continued from Jan. 2 and 3, and will mark the third hearings on the telephone problem.

At the meetings earlier this month, more witnesses against the companies testified that there had been no change in the telephone systems here and that service has not improved.

On the other hand, the companies, California Water and Telephone Company, Coachella Home Telephone and Telegraph Company and the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company have claimed that they have done everything possible to improve the service

Franchise Tax Board Plans Revision of Questionnaires

Members of the California Franchise Tax Board, in Palm Springs yesterday, promised to revise their questionnaires as well as the method used in obtaining information from Winter residents, which ultimately is used to determine whether they are residents of this state.

Civic leaders and city officials met at a luncheon meeting at El Mirador Hotel with members of the board to discuss the current problem and to arrive at an understanding.

THE QUESTION was brought up when residents became alarmed over a questionnaire sent them by the state, and according to local business and professional men, it has caused some of these "residents" to move from Palm Springs.

Representing the state at the meeting were Robert C. Kirkwood, chairman; John J. Campbell, executive officer; and Harry Freeze, head of the Los Angeles tax office. Mayor Florian Boyd, after having local men outline effects of the questionnaire on Palm Springs Winter residents, asked the board members "what they used to determine a resident of this state."

CAMPBELL SAID that these questionnaires, which were preceded by letters, were sent out when Riverside county records showed the transfer of property to people who did not file tax returns. He said that the board sent out 147 letters, and 56 persons were found immediately to be non-residents, 30 more were later declared non-residents of the state, and seven have admitted local residence and have started paying taxes.

The Board is still processing some 54 questionnaires, and he said that of these maybe a half

County Office Relocation, Roads On Board Agenda

Reports on relocation of county offices and justice court in Palm Springs will be studied by the County board of Supervisors regular Riverside meeting Monday.

Below Zero Readings Are Common

By UNITED PRESS

A fresh gust of arctic weather frosted highways from the Midwest to the Atlantic Coast today, and threatened to blanket all but a small corner of the nation by tonight.

The belt of chilliness sent autos skidding and temperatures toppling. A blend of freezing rain, snow and drizzle coated roads with a dangerous slickness Friday, especially in the eastern half of the nation.

THIS SWATH OF precipitation moved into the East Coast states early today, but the Weather Bureau forecast it would move off over the Atlantic later today.

Meanwhile, the western two-thirds of the country shivered in below-zero temperatures, and indications were that by night-time all but the extreme southeast corner of the country would feel the colder air.

A LARGE CHUNK of Montana and the western Dakotas registered early morning readings of 20 degrees below zero.

The lowest readings, however, were in western Montana, where, according to the Weather Bureau, "30 below is common." Helena, Mont., reported a nippy 39 below early today.

Late News Bulletins

BULLETIN--By Hal Wood--High winds swept across the Thunderbird Club course this morning in the third round of the $15,000 Invitational. As a result first round scores were skyrocketing, and chances appeared slim that there would be many tracking par. The five leaders at the halfway mark were late teeing off. Among the early starters today, host pro Jimmy Hines had the best score for the first nine with a two-under-par 34. However, he had started the day with a 146, twelve strokes behind the leaders. Gene Littler and Don January had 35's. George Howard of O'Donnell had 41.

Don Marteen Dies Friday at Santa Barbara

Don Marteen, 41, known throughout the Palm Springs resort area as an entertainer, died at the Santa Barbara Cottage Hospital at 10 p.m. last night.

His wife, Bunny, who is employed at the Ranch Club, was notified of her husband's death by Frank Bogert who had received the death message via telephone from Santa Barbara. Marteen had worked at El Mirador Hotel, Doll House, Shadow Mountain Club and Thunderbird Ranch and Country Club as a singing guitarist. He was also a noted magician and had received the Houdini award for his magical tricks with coins.

Central Palm Canyon Property Owners Organize, Seek Paving, Sidewalks, Trees

Palm Springs' newest civic group set organizational wheels into active motion at its first meeting yesterday afternoon.

To be known as the Central Palm Canyon Drive Association, 25 members representing property owners from Tamarisk to Stevens roads voted Harold Hicks as temporary chairman, and agreed to push toward a goal of paving of Palm Canyon Drive from the center of the street to both curbs, sidewalk construction and the extension of illuminated palm trees.

THOSE PRESENT at the first meeting represented property values in the area approximating several million dollars.

Committee members appointed by Hicks and ordered to report back with a "comprehensive plan of how the project shall be accomplished, the cost of curbs, sidewalks and gutters, and a proposed slate of permanent officers, were Sol Lesser, noted motion picture producer; Frank Bogert, representing the interest of El Mirador Hotel, and Culver Nichols, realtor.

MOMENTS AFTER the meeting was called to order, Lesser arose and informed those present that "we feel like we are still out in the country."

"I believe," continued Lesser, "that paving of Palm Canyon Drive from the center of the street to gutters and curbs is of utmost importance and should be quickly accomplished."

Comments that followed Lesser's remarks were that property owners from Tamarisk Road to Stevens Road would bear their proportionate share of the expense. There were no dissenting remarks.

CULVER NICHOLS voiced the opinion that all of Palm Canyon Drive property owners should be invited to join the organization, but this was deferred until a concrete plan is offered for the construction of curbs, sidewalks, gutters and the extension of palm trees.

Mayor Florian Boyd, who was present in the dual capacity of city official and property owner, remarked that if other property owners in the city showed the same enthusiasm displayed by

Fire Danger In Area to Be Checked Now

Officers from the State Forestry Station in Indio will be giving more attention to the inspection of fire hazards in the unincorporated areas, according to Nate Cohn, Volunteer Fire Chief of Cathedral City.

Inspection tours are being made to ascertain that all residents have their incinerators the farthest point from any combustible material on the property. The wire mesh used should not have larger than one fourth inch openings, they report, and must be secured to the incinerator to prevent being dislodged by the wind.

Penalties will be levied if residents are found to be in violation of the county ordinance covering fire hazards, by a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than fifty dollars, Cohn said.

Inspectors warn against burning on windy days, and under no circumstances should garbage be burned. Permits for burning are available at the Cathedral City Fire Station, free of charge and valid for one year.

Council Sets Election Date, Plans Paving

City council last night took care of a long list of routine items at their regular meeting, and cleared the agenda for important future action; namely, the sewer bond election and the possible immediate paving of McCallum Way.

Councilman Jerry Sanborn asked the council to take under consideration the engineering of McCallum Way, which would allow subdividers and developers to start construction along the thoroughfare.

THE COUNCIL HAS directed the planning commission and the engineering department to get together with administrators to come up with a solution to the problem. Section 14 will not be ready for the improvement until after the Indian Planning consultant has completed his work.

Other matters approved by the council included:

The adoption of a resolution of intention to hold the Sewer Bond election of March 19 and the appropriation of $5,000 to cover election expenses.

The approving of the low bid of $5,438 for removal of the Lienau Village buildings and the clearing of the site.

In traffic matters, the installation of two loading zones and a stop sign, and a no parking zone on the south side of Mesquite for 200 feet east of Palm Canyon Drive.

THEY RESCINDED, at the request of property owners, a resolution of intention to set up a sewer assessment district on Calle Santa Cruz; and approved a dance permit for La Paz hotel.

The council filed no protests in three local liquor license changes, for the Saddle and Siroin and the Flame Restaurant for name change only, and for the Bali Bali for an upgrade from a seasonal to year around license.

The new defense and disaster operations plan was approved by the council, putting into operation one of the most complete plans in the state.

Elrod Adds New Noted Decorator To His Staff

Keeping step with the tremendous growth of the Palm Springs area, Arthur Elrod, who this last year has had national publicity in connection with his work, has had to again add to his staff of decorators.

As usual Elrod found it difficult to find a decorator with experience enough to fit into his organization, and said that he is "most fortunate in having Emerson Whipple join his staff."

Whipple a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley did post graduate work both in England and France in furniture design and interior structural work. He served with the 9th Air Force during the war and for the last seven years has been a senior decorator with W. & J. Sloane in San Francisco.

The School Board hit a new hurdle in its plans for acquisition of a school site in Thousand Palms last night, but board members agreed to leap the stumbling block tossed up by the County Planning Commission.

The planning commission asked the board to secure an 88-foot-wide strip of access roadway to the proposed school site instead of the 60 feet originally specified.

THE REQUEST, which threatened to force board members to seek school property elsewhere, followed discovery by planning commissioners that the proposed roadway along Roberts Road existed on a half-section line, calling for a major thoroughfare.

The school district business manager, told the board that he had secured a tentative agreement for purchase of a 17.9 acre site, with a 30-foot strip of accessway, for $12,500 before the commission sent in its amended recommendation.

The board last night voted unanimously to complete the transaction and ordered the matter sent to escrow.

SCHOOL SUPT. Wallace R. Mueller explained that the county could not prevent acquisition of school property, and that the board would only have to wait 30 days after notifying the commission of its purchase plans before they go ahead.

DHS Churches to Show Luther Film

Desert Hot Springs Council of Churches will sponsor the showing of the film "Martin Luther" Saturday, and Sunday, Jan. 26 and 27 at the First Baptist church, First and Cactus, Desert Hot Springs.
The showings on each day will be at 5:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. No tickets are being sold, only a free-will offering will be taken.
The film portrays the highlights of the life of the religious leader.

In it you see Luther as a young monk, as professor at Wittenburg, nailing his 95 theses to the church door, his debate with Dr. Eck at Leipzig, his trial before the Emperor at Worms, his escape and seclusion at Wartburg, his marriage and the origin of the Augsburg confession.
The film is produced by "L'oule de Rochemont."

God's Healing Power Available

"The Lord is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations." This verse from Psalms (100:5) is the Golden Text of the Lesson-Sermon on "Truth" to be read in all Christian Science churches Sunday. The sermon stresses the availability today of the healing power of divine Truth.
Christ Jesus' healing of the "woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself" (Luke 13:11) will be among the Scriptural selections read from the King James Version of the Bible.

THUNDERBIRD TOURNEY STILL WIDE OPEN

Five Tied for Lead With 134 Scores Today

Art Wall's Team Wins in Foursome Pro-Member Play

The traffic in the $15,000 Thunderbird Invitational Golf Tournament was so thick today you couldn't tell the leaders without a score card.

As the nation's top professionals feed off in the third round of competition five (count 'em, 5) were tied for first place; and eight more were no more than four strokes away.

DEADLOCKED for the leadership were Ken Venturi, San Francisco; Art Wall, Pocono Manor, Pa.; Julius Boros, Mid Pines, N.C.; Doug Ford, Mahopac, N.Y. and Billy Maxwell, Odessa, Tex. They each had 134 totals—eight strokes under par for the first 36 holes.

Venturi, who was co-leader with Dr. Cary Middlecoff the first day, finished with a 68 Friday; and Middlecoff had a 69 for 135.

At 136, behind Middlecoff, came Mike Souchak, Grossinger, N.Y., and Stan Leonard, Vancouver, B.C. and at 137 were Bobby Rosenberg, San Francisco, and Bo Winger, Odessa, Tex.

BEST SCORE of the day Friday was turned in by Doug Ford, L.A. Open champion, who was four strokes back as the day started. He added a 64 to his first day's 70 and wound up in the five-way tie with 134.

Ken Venturi missed a few chances to go into a one-stroke lead but still managed to fashion a 68 to go with his 66 of Thursday to still be a co-leader at the end of 36 holes.

RANDOLPH SCOTT, filmland hero, was also the hero of the Pro-Member best ball team play. Teamed with Pro Art Wall, Desi Arnez and auto dealer H. B. Fisher of Los Angeles, he fired a torrid 69 Friday.

His foursome captured the best ball event with a card of 112, 30 under par.

Well shot an individual 67 to get into the tie for the lead.

ED FURGOL'S PRO-MEMBER team finished second with 113 and Jack Burke and Eric Brown, with their amateur teammates, tied for this at 114.

Venturi lost his chance for the lead on the 11th when his drive landed against a tree and he had to waste a left-handed recovery shot.

THE TOURNAMENT comes to an end tomorrow night and as the pros played around today it was still a wide-open event.

A large gallery followed the players despite the early threatening weather.

Play starts at 10 a.m. for the last two days of the tournament.

A 26-point effort by John Warren of Al Kazmier's Palm Springs quintet and the help of a 20-point barrage from sharp-shooter, Sam "the shot" Jones led the Braves to their fourth league victory.

Actually the game was a mere "shooting contest" in the eyes of several of the players, who hit for a 77 per cent accuracy from the floor. Warren, hefting the worries of the center position, was extremely accurate from the foul-shot line, sinking 13 in 16 attempts.

Jones, on the other hand, is definitely proving to the world, at least the county, that he is probably one of the greatest jump-shot artists in the business. "The Shot" tallied a total effort of 16 digits in the primary half alone.

THE LOCAL JAYVEES aren't enjoying the many victories which their counter-parts are. They are tending toward a parabolic curve—headed downward. Last night they were defeated by a strong bunch of Perris boys who were led by the terrific cage abilities of Pete Meyez who scored 23 tallies to assure his team of a victory.

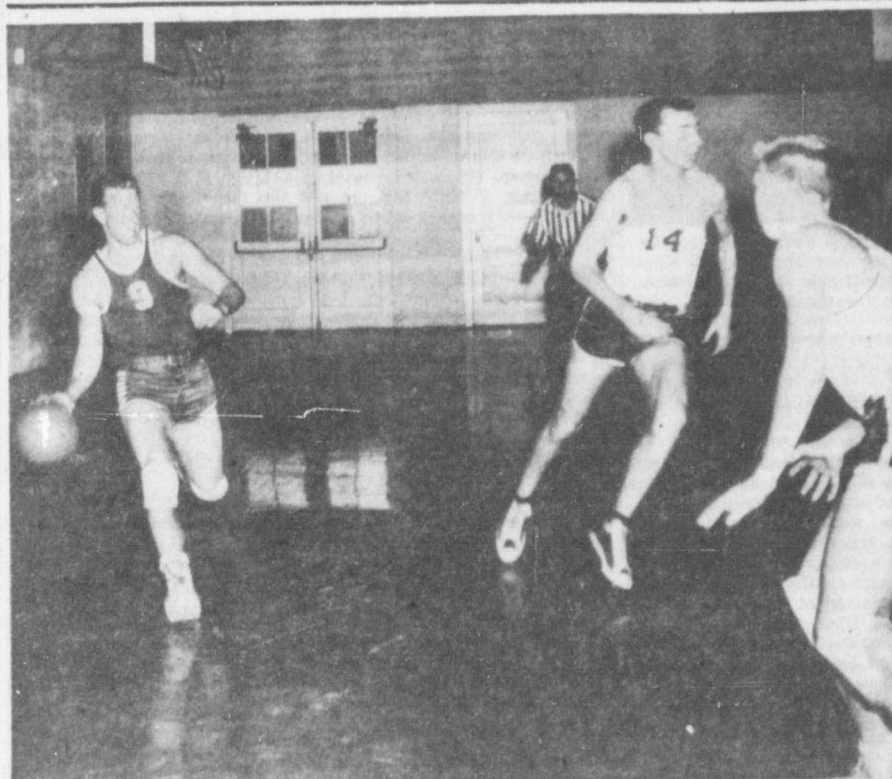

The locals fought to a slight lead in the third stanza as Jeff Lilly sank one of the so called "bread and butter" shots. The Indians blew apart as the Panthers applied pressure and lost 45-38.

BOB JACKSON, Curtis Roberts, and Eddie Tarr saw a great deal of action last night also, mainly on the floor. Nearly all the substitutes got on the official scoring record toward the end of the tilt. There will be no action Tuesday due to finals.

Campy Continues Attack on Jackie

By UNITED PRESS

Southpaw Warren Spahn saw the Dodgers today as a team that is "getting old" and said they could drop "as low as fourth" this year.

Spahn, a 20-game winner for the seventh time in his career last season, made his remarks in Milwaukee where he is scheduled to talk terms with General Manager John Quinn and to receive an award Monday night as the most valuable member of the Braves for 1956.

"The Bums are getting old and they'll miss Jackie Robinson," Spahn said.

Rookie outfielder Everett Joyner became the 18th member of the Braves to sign his contract. He batted .344 with Shreveport of the Texas League last season.

Stan Lopata, who had his best year last season, hitting 32 home runs and driving in 93 runs while catching and playing first base for the Phillies, signed his 1957 contract for an estimated $6,000 raise.

SPAHN SAYS BUMS TOO OLD TO FINISH ON TOP

First baseman Norm Zauchin and outfielder Faye Throneberry returned their signed contracts to the Boston Red Sox.

Detroit signed pitchers Richard Chadner and Paul Gatzka and the heavyweight title, while aging Joey Maxim, not discouraged at his loss to Machen, looked for a "couple of breathers."

Machen, third-ranked heavy-weight from Redding, Calif., came on like a young lion in the final rounds of Friday night's 10-round television bout to win a unanimous decision over the former light-heavyweight champion after flooring him for a nine-count in the ninth at the Miami Beach Auditorium.

MIAMI — Wheatley Stable's Gray Phantom, trained by the turf's "grand old man," Jim Fitzsimmons, was favored to lead home 12 rivals today in the $25,000 Palm Handicap at Hialeah Park.

Art Ceccarelli and Ron Moeller also signed with the Orioles, making a total of 18 who have okayed terms with Baltimore.

Cal Ruins Indian Spoiler Role in Overtime Battle

By NEAL CORBETT

United Press Sports Writer
Unbeaten California needed overtime Friday night to ruin Stanford's "spoiler" reputation in Pacific Coast Conference basketball play—but it took two teams from the bottom of the standings to furnish the "record" performance.

California became the first team to beat the Indians twice in conference play this season by squeezing out a 67-64 overtime victory. Earlier the surprising Stanford team had split with tough teams from Oregon State and Washington.

WASHINGTON DEFEATED Oregon State, 64-53, Friday night for its sixth win in seven starts, but the cellar battle between Washington State and Oregon crumbled records as the Cougars won 87-91.

Oregon's Charlie Franklin made 18 free throws to top the PCC record of 17 set by Willie Naulls of UCLA and totaled 36 points to break Oregon's all-time individual scoring mark set by Jim Loscutt.

But Franklin was pushed all the way. Larry Beck of WSC hit 17 free throws to tie Naulls' old record and totaled 33 points.

WASHINGTON PLAYS Oregon State again tonight, while Washington State tangled with Oregon. Stanford, the only other PCC team that will see action, plays Santa Clara in a non-conference game.

The present standings: California 6-0, UCLA 4-0, Washington 6-1, Oregon State 2-3, Stanford 2-4, Washington State 2-5, USC 1-3, Idaho 2-6, and Oregon 1-4.

Machen's Rally Defeats Maxim

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer
Reg. U.S. Pat. Off.

NEW YORK — Fearless Fraley's facts and figures:
Lou Little, who retired last season as Columbia University football coach, admits that he has received a "number of offers" to coach elsewhere but embarrassment is keeping him from accepting any of them.

"There was so much fuss made about my retirement, and I received so many awards and 'farewell' dinners," Lou says with a wry grin, "that I honestly don't feel I can make a 'comeback.' If I did, I'd be letting down all those folks who were so nice with their farewells." Which is really going all "out" for your friends.

UMPIRE IN PRISON
There probably are many National League fans who will be glad to hear that Umpire Al Barlick is in prison. But only as a lecturer on umpiring as part of the State of Illinois prisoner rehabilitation program. But it proves where umpires come from, anyhow.

The Baltimore Orioles boast that Charley Beamon, rookie righthander, had a 16-0 record at Stockton in 1955 and had a 13-game winning streak at Vancouver last year.

They oughta be braggin' about his 1-0 win over Whitey Ford in his major league debut. That's something.

Sam Snead has a fishin' feud on with his sporting goods firm partner, Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox. They had a contest on who could boat the most sail fish last year and Snead won. This year they went after bonefish and all Sam did was catch a 15-pounder for a world's record. Sam would not comment on whether Williams has learned to spit to windward.

NO KIND THOUGHTS
Pedro Martinez, the behemoth who once flung himself around the rasslin' circuit before he began promoting in such places as Buffalo and Rochester, doesn't take kindly to people who question the on-the-level character of his sport.

Recently he spoke before a group of lawyers and, when one of their number began to slip him the needle, Pedro quoth haughtily: "Recently I talked before a group of prisoners at San Quentin. Gentlemen, I was quite surprised to discover that there were a great many former attorneys, judges and politicians in that prison—but there wasn't a single wrestler." Imagine!

Stanford Athletes Suspended for Prank
STANFORD, Calif. — Half-back Paul Camera of San Francisco and Guard Don Manoukian of Reno, Nev., both Stanford football regulars, have been suspended for the winter quarter but the action won't affect the Indian grid squad.

The men's council, the student governing body, suspended the two men Friday for an off-campus prank. It did not elaborate on the offense.

Festival Of Opera In April

Production plans for the gala Festival of Opera to be presented during the week of April 7 in Riverside's new Landis Auditorium are now well under way.

The Festival of Opera will honor Marcella Craft, a Riverside who went to Europe and became one of the all-time luminaries of the operatic stage prior to her return to Riverside. It was with the memory of her early struggles, and the lack of opportunity to gain operatic experience, that she founded the Riverside Opera Company. Under her guidance as general director, the organization has functioned to present cultural entertainment to the community, as a medium of operatic education for young aspirants in all phases of the art, and as a springboard to professional careers.

The "Festival" program to be presented will be notable, comprised of some of the most dramatic arias and moments from all grand opera. An accompanying narrative commentary should heighten interest and establish rapport between artists and audience as seldom achieved in conventional performances. Unlike the usual concert form of similar productions, the "Festival" will lack none of the colorful pageantry of staging, acting, and costumes which combine to make opera "grand."

Monologist On Coronation Program

Elizabeth Talbot-Martin, satirical monologist will be the guest artist Coronation Night, Monday night at Shadow Mountain Club. All those who enjoyed this artist when she appeared before the Palm Desert Woman's Club will want to see her again.

Miss Talbot-Martin's satirical characterizations have carried her into every phase of the theatre. She has toured in concert with Velloz and Yolanda, and has appeared with Edgar Bergen and Arthur Godfrey.

Elizabeth Talbot-Martin started in the theatre as a dancer. She found, though that her impersonations were more fun than her dances so a whole new career was launched by what she calls her "parlor tricks." Two hairpins, adroit facial expressions, and flexible voice are all she needs to convulse audiences with her hilarious take-offs on such diversified types as movie stars, housewives, subway riders, society girls and all types of singers and dancers and world celebrities.

Dr. Simpson's Niece to Wed

Corinne Cherry, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James Harvey Cherry of Altadena, whose plans for a Valentine's Day wedding have been announced, is a niece of Dr. Claude Simpson and granddaughter of Mrs. Harry F. Simpson of 1111 Tamarisk Road.

The bridegroom-elect is John Edward Wells II, son of Mrs. Lucia N. Wells of Pasadena and John Wells of Jefferson City, Missouri. The betrothed couple selected Valentine's Day as the date for their wedding not only because it is Corinne's birthday, but also because, coincidentally enough, it is the wedding anniversary of her maternal and paternal grandparents Mrs. Harry F. Simpson of Palm Springs and the late Mr. Simpson, and Mrs. William S. Cherry of Pasadena and the late Mr. Cherry.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Stephens College in Columbia, Missouri. Her fiancé is an alumnus of John Muir College, and following his service with the Armed Forces in Japan, he is now attending USC's School of Architecture.

Palm Springers Take Part In Inaugural Festivities

(Impressions of the Inauguration festivities were written especially for the Desert Sun by Palm Springer Mrs. Donald Lockett.)

The Inauguration festivities are over and the flags, grandstands, etc., have disappeared, all but the memories of the lavish social affairs, and the impressive Inaugural ceremony itself.

Undoubtedly, the outstanding social event was the dazzling reception and supper dance at the Mayflower Hotel, given Saturday night in honor of Vice President and Mrs. Richard Nixon, and hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hall, Mr. and Mrs. John Clifford Folger and Bertha Adkins.

Among the 1400 guests were

Palm Springers Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bennett and daughter Dee-dee, and Mrs. Donald Lockett, who were whisked there from Inaugural Festival Show at the Uline Arena with George Murphy and his two children Dennis and Missy, with police escort. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fleming of La Jolla and Palm Springs, also attended the party. Mrs. Nixon was lovely in a shimmering gown of shell pink satin, a sheath embroidered in tiny iridescent beads over the bodice and down the side panel.

There were 1400 guests including the Cabinet members and wives, members of Congress and wives, several of Mrs. Nixon's family, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Eisenhower, Milton, and Mrs. Earl Eisenhower Jr. and wife Barbara. The entire first floor of the Mayflower Hotel was given over to the dancing, reception and giant-sized buffet of delicious delicacies. The California Supper Dance, also at the Mayflower, and also honoring Dick and Pat Nixon, was a great success due to the efforts of Melba Bennett, who was in charge of arrangements.

Three hundred distinguished guests enjoyed another lavish buffet and evening of dancing. The buffet table at one end of the Ball Room, was lovely with formal decorations of two four-foot-tall trumpet-shaped silver vases with large golden and white chrysanthemums. Each individual table, of which there were about 50, had a lighted silver hurricane lamp surrounded at the base with a mounded wreath of pompons in the same colors.

Other events of especial interest were the Sunday afternoon reception for all the Governors, at the Statler Hotel, attended by 8,000 guests; a small exclusive cocktail party hosted by Joan Winchell at the Statler; the Symphony Concert at Constitution Hall Sunday evening, which featured the Washington National Symphony orchestra, Lily Pons (she was at her loveliest in a beige brocaded gown with a shirred bodice and scarf of her favorite tangerine chiffon, showing off her lovely Palm Springs tan), Fred Waring's Orchestra and Glee Club, and Ethel Merman, who was quoted as humorously saying she "could sing for the long hairs, the short hairs, and the butch hair-cuts."

The California people were assigned to the Inaugural Ball at the National Guard Armory, at which there were nearly 9,000 guests. Several states were assigned to each of the four balls—the others at the Mayflower, Statler, and Sheraton Park Hotel.

Melba Bennett, assisted by Dee-dee, working with LeRoy Prinz and Major Sam King, arrived at each of the four balls in advance of the arrival of the military escort, color guard, and the President and Mrs. Eisenhower, to see that their entrance and the start of the Grand Promenade of guests proceeded smoothly, as the President and First Lady were able to spend only about 20 minutes at each Ball. Melba Bennett did a superb job of helping with the planning, rehearsing, and coordinating with Mr. Prinz and the Military. For the Ball evening, she wore a gold chiffon gown with draped bodice. Frank also had a big hand in planning and coordinating. He remained at the Armory Ball as a trouble-shooter.

Rev. James Blackstone, pastor of the Palm Springs Community Church, arrived in the Capitol the morning of the Inaugural, and was among those on the Inaugural platform, with the Frank Bennetts, for the Inaugural ceremony, and attended the Ball at the Armory with Mrs. Donald Lockett's party. Snow, close to zero weather, and rain in the days preceding the Inaugural, but the sun broke through as Eisenhower stepped out on the Inaugural platform.

Stork Showers Take On Glamor in Hollywood

By ALINE MOSBY
United Press Hollywood Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The expectant movie star mother is just as excited at her first baby shower here as anybody in Hot Stove, Ark., but in Hollywood the showers have the glamour touch—champagne, music and photographers.

A chance to find out what a Hollywood baby shower is like arose when singer Lita Baron (Mrs. Rory Calhoun) was feted for her expected heir.

Four of Lita's friends—Debbie Reynolds Fisher, columnist Edith Gwynn, Mrs. Vic Orsatti (wife of an agent) and Mrs. John Payne decided to toss a supercolossal luncheon in her honor at the Orsatti home.

In some ways this glamorous baby shower could have been for any housewife. Only the guests who were babbling about their children and homes just as women do the world over were such beauties as Ann Blyth, June Haver, Lana Turner, Benay Venuta, Mrs. Dean Martin, Nancy Davis, Mrs. John Wayne and Olga San Juan. But where else but in Hollywood would a baby shower have glampor? Champagne flowed like ginger ale for two hours before the "girls" even got around to lunch. An entertainer was hired to play soft piano music. Huge white paper storks decorated the lawn outside and the ceiling inside.

The guest-of-honor arrived with a tiny white French poodle decorated with pink and blue ribbons to match her mistress' white silk maternity dress. On the luncheon tables the matches were decorated with toy babies and the napkins were in the shape of monogrammed pink diapers. A huge blown-up photograph showed the dark-haired Lita with a baby wearing a superimposed head of husband Rory Calhoun.

"I'm finally having a baby after nine years of marriage," said the beaming Lita. "I've lost two, so this means a lot to Rory and me."

Gasped one guest "This is the most fabulous shower since the one for Kay Spreckels."

Most of the big Balls . . . that make Palm Springs' social season so glittering . . . are charity affairs . . . and it seems to accentuate the good time to know that it aids a good cause . . . Unfortunately, some of the Balls glitter so much . . . that most of the proceeds go into the expenses . . . instead of to the charity which inspired it . . . So . . . it is a real coup scored by the Women's Auxiliary of Desert Hospital . . . who cleared close to $4000 from its Capricorn Ball . . .

In addition, the Ball inspired the gift of $5000 from the Jack Meiselmans . . . to furnish a room in the new wing of Desert Hospital . . . Plaudits to everyone concerned.

Dr. and Mrs. Norman Vincent Peale of New York City . . . are planning a Palm Springs vacation for the week of February 11 . . . it was learned this week . . . Minister of the Marble Collegiate Church in New York . . . Dr. Peale is also one of the nation's best known authors and lecturers . . . This will be the first visit of the noted couple . . . who usually take a 10-day vacation in Florida this time of the year . . . but have decided to try Palm Springs for a change . . .

Dr. Peale will be the speaker at the Palm Springs Rotary Club on February 13 . . . it was announced by Oliver Jaynes, member of the Rotary Club program committee . . . Jaynes is a college classmate of the noted minister . . .

Following his visit here . . . Dr. Peale will speak at meetings in Los Angeles and San Francisco on behalf of the Foundation of Religion and Psychiatry . . . of which he is co-founder with Dr. Smiley Blanton, who was also a recent Palm Springs visitor . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Berg (he's the well-known composer) are occupying the Thomas Fleming apartment on West Arenas . . . for a two week's stay in Palm Springs . . . while the Flemings are back east, where they went to attend the Inauguration . . .

On Wednesday Jerry (Mrs. Berg) was guest of honor at a luncheon at Thunderbird . . . given by Mrs. William Malouf . . . After luncheon the guests played bridge . . . Guests included Mmes. Randolph Christie, Joe Frogatt, S. P. Manasse, Bob Kenaston and Miss Beth Scott . . .

Shadow Mountain Club members, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hayes, Jr. of Minneapolis . . . have arrived in Palm Desert to spend several weeks in their home there . . . Both are ardent golfers . . . who vacation here each year to take advantage of the many beautiful golf courses in the area . . .

Miss Teresa Fields will entertain at a cocktail party for a round 100 . . . at her home on Camino Descano on February 3 . . .

Among special guests will be the Howard Flints, Charles Jinnettes and L. V. Britts . . . all of Detroit . . . and the Ralph Wilfords of LaJolla, who will be her houseguests . . .

Desert Riders are asked to wear their fanciest Western clothes . . . for their breakfast meeting at Sunny Cove on Tuesday morning . . . as motion pictures will be taken that morning . . .

Civic Chorus Presents Very Skillful Production of Mendelssohn's Elijah

It was a skillful performance of Mendelssohn's "Elijah" that the Palm Springs Civic Chorus offered Thursday evening, with Harry Tomlinson conducting, and Christine Tomlinson, the organist, at the Jewish Community Center.

The Chorus resounded with excellent intonation, precision and nuance. This organization, through the years of Tomlinson's able direction, has gained much in musical stature and is counted an important asset to this community.

The two choruses, "He watching over Israel" and "Behold God the Lord," were especially powerful and effective. Alex Hammond, bass soloist, sang the part of Elijah with complete mastery, particularly the famous arias, "It is Enough" and "Draw Near all Ye People."

John Hillery, lyric tenor, pleased with his fine rendition of "If With All Your Hearts" and "Then Shall the Righteous Shine Forth." Reba Mason's rich contralto brought special beauty to the well loved melodies of "O Rest in the Lord" and "Woe Unto Them Who Forsake Him." Mary Raphael sang the soprano arias in a highly professional manner, and Jane Hocking and Peggy Schuler were effective in their soprano solos.

The audience was warm in its appreciation of the fine evening of music, sponsored by the Palm Springs Music Society.

SAFETY SAFETY PIN

If you ask me, this Safety Pin won't work. But if you ask my colleague, Dr. Kitzenger, he'll say it's without a doubt his greatest invention. Of course, he said that about his Hollow Hot Dog Roll and his Hi-Fi Fog Horn and they were real "bombs" so I don't take much stock in his opinion. However, this Safety Safety Pin is incidental because right now he and Dr. Schweine are building a Guided Missile. It's Top Secret but from what I could gather listening at the Laboratory keystone this Missile won't be powered in the usual way with rockets and jets. It'll be built on the principle of the Banana. In other words the Missile will be enclosed in a slippery skin and it'll be squeezed at the target by a huge mechanical hand. Sounds to me like the boys are planning Squish-bution Warfare.

Berkey Tells Real Estate Board Of New Area Attitude of Supervisors

Evidence that the County Board of Supervisors has greatly increased its interest in the long-neglected desert area was offered to the Palm Springs Real Estate Board last night by Supervisor George Berkey.

Berkey, the board's desert area representative, told 100 Realty Board members that the present supervisors are stepping up their action on behalf of the desert-Coachella Valley district to a pace unmatched by any previous board.

AS AN EXAMPLE Berkey cited frequent trips of supervisors to this area when investigating measures proposed for supervisory action.

Berkey said the supervisors are currently studying the desert road situation and have come up with a plan to consider the upcoming Highway 111 Freeway project as a single unit stretching from White-water to Palm Desert.

PAST ROAD planning, it was explained, usually resulted in breaking up of road building into segments and stretching time factors into a period of years.

The board, Berkey said, will probably have all rights-of-way mapped out for the freeway by the first of next year.

"I wish the desert area would work even more closely with the Board of Supervisors," Berkey remarked, adding that the Supervisors will be of great potential help in the Tramway problem.

Anti-Polio Vaccine Shots Offered Village Youngsters

Youngsters at all Palm Springs elementary schools will be lined up for anti-polio vaccine shots early in February, the School Board announced today.

School Supt. Wallace Muelder said the vaccine was offered by the County Board of Health, which reported a surplus sufficient to service all county elementary schools.

Muelder said that slips asking parental permission to administer the shots will go out immediately.
